

Spectrum Management Consulting Service

With a wealth of knowledge in radio spectrum management and telecommunication, our strategic consultants advise clients all over the world on matters of radio regulations development, communication policies, spectrum planning, and computer-based frequency management and radio station licensing.

Our consultants are experts in the development of radio monitoring techniques and applications in support of the radio station licensing and spectrum planning process.

Our strategic consultants have evaluated many spectrum management administrations and have recommended organization structures that optimize stall and technology utilization and streamlines administration's processes and procedures

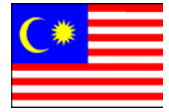

Uganda

Thailand

Columbia

Malaysia

Bangladesh

Niger

India

Nepal

Barbados

Malawi

